ONE GREAT CAMP DAY

*Grade levels refer to the grade completed by June 2027.

Prepared for Changing Summer Weather

Summer weather is becoming increasingly unpredictable, with extreme heat, wildfire smoke, poor air quality and sudden downpours affecting outdoor programs. Richmond Hill Country Club Day Camp is uniquely equipped to adapt.

With extensive air-conditioned indoor spaces, indoor courts, multipurpose rooms and an indoor swimming pool, our camp day can continue with only minor program adjustments. During heat waves, we reduce the amount of time campers spend outdoors and move more activities into our air-conditioned facilities. In recent summers, when wildfire smoke affected local air quality, campers safely enjoyed a full range of indoor activities instead.

Whatever the summer weather brings, our team adjusts thoughtfully to keep campers safe, comfortable, active and engaged.

Since 1992, summers have been better at RHCC.

*More than a summer of learning and fun...
It's a lifetime of skills & great memories!*

Philosophy

Richmond Hill Country Club strives to be recognized as a leading camp where children and youth have an opportunity to participate in quality programs that enrich their lives by learning about themselves, creating great memories and cultivating lifelong friendships.

At Richmond Hill Country Club Day Camp, our goals are:

BUILDING SKILLS: Campers should be exposed to a wide variety of activities, become more proficient in skills that they are passionate about, try new things and cultivate skills.

PROVIDING A SAFE ENVIRONMENT: Campers should have a physically and emotionally safe and fun environment that allows each camper's unique interests and abilities, and differences to be respected and nurtured

DEVELOPING SELF CONFIDENCE & SELF AWARENESS: Campers should be given the opportunity to grow as individuals and develop confidence in their abilities

BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS WITH OTHERS: Campers are encouraged to nurture their creative spirit and develop a sense of self-understanding that allows campers to make friends and foster lifelong friendships
